IMPORTANT NOTES

If you have answered yes or not sure to any of the above you should invite the child and family to undertake a more thorough assessment which will be recorded on the CAF form.

The full assessment will help you decide who else should be involved and with permission allow you to share information with them in order to meet the child/young persons needs.

This assessment must then lead to an action plan of what can be put into place to support the achievement of all the outcomes.

Please contact ICRS on 72 8573 to check whether a CAF has already been completed on this child, or to record the fact that you are about to undertake one.
