HAPPY RETIREMENT, PAUL

Colleagues at HQ BFGHS gathered to say goodbye to Paul Mann who leaves the Civil Service after 45 years loyal service.

Paul joined the Civil Service in 1965, working at the Chatham Dockyards. His first German posting was in 1984, for three years, when he worked for the Claims Branch in Düsseldorf. Paul then went back to the UK where he held various positions working at the Army storage depot in Donnington in 1987, at the HM Treasury in 1988 and at the Army Management Consultancy Services from 1991 to 1996.

Paul has spent the last 14 years of his career in Germany, serving as Chief Executive Garrison Works Alliance in Rheindahlen and at BFG Health Service since 2003. Paul is now looking forward to moving to France, with his wife Penny, to enjoy his retirement.
